November 4, 1912: First National Fire Insurance Co., Washington, D. C.
November 4, 1912: Commercial Fire Insurance Co., Washington, D. C.

In the examination of the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Insurance Department, listed above, it was necessary for the examiner to visit Indianapolis, Ind. The society advanced $200 on account of traveling and hotel expenses, of which $136.90 was expended, and the balance, $63.19, was returned to the society.

In the examination of the Patricians, listed above, it was necessary for the examiner to visit Saginaw, Mich. The society advanced $75 on account of traveling and hotel expenses, of which $39.73 was expended, and the balance, $35.27, was returned to the society.

In the examinations of the Franklin Insurance Co. and the Potomac Insurance Co., listed above under date of September 25, 1912, it was necessary for two examiners to spend about five weeks in New York City, because the general agent of these companies kept some of the vital records in his office in that city. There was advanced on account of traveling and hotel expenses $475, of which $451.96 was expended, and the balance, $23.04, was returned.

In the examination of the Columbian Woodmen, listed above, it was necessary for the superintendent and an examiner to visit Atlanta, Ga. The society advanced $250 on account of traveling and hotel expenses, of which the entire amount was so expended.

In connection with the examination of the First National Fire Insurance Co., listed above, it was necessary for the superintendent to visit Montgomery, Ala. The company advanced $100 on account of traveling and hotel expenses, of which $93.25 was expended, and the balance, $6.75, was returned to the company.

In connection with the application of the Home Beneficial Association for license to transact business in this District, it was necessary, under the act of August 15, 1911, for the superintendent to visit Richmond, Va. The hotel and traveling expenses incurred on this trip amounted to $18.55, which was paid by the association.

In the consideration of the financial statement of the Southern Mutual Aid Association, the superintendent was required by section 653 of the Code of Laws for the District of Columbia, to check up the assets of the association, which necessitated his visiting Birmingham, Ala. The association advanced $80 on account of traveling and hotel expenses, of which $69.20 was expended, and the balance, $10.80, was returned to the association.

LEGISLATION.

The only legislation secured during 1912 was an amendment to section 646 of the Code of Laws for the District of Columbia, which was approved and became effective on January 17, 1912. In its original form this section required certain documents to be filed by a company applying for license to transact business here, and there was strong doubt as to the right of the superintendent to ask for additional information which was considered essential. The section now contains "and such other information as said superintendent may require." It was also amended by adding Provided, however, That should said company or association neglect or refuse to appoint such attorney, or should such attorney absent himself from the District, said legal process may be served upon the superintendent of insurance of the District of Columbia.

This change was made necessary by reason of the fact that in some cases where service was sought on the appointed attorney to accept service of process it was found that the individual authorized by the company's appointment was absent from the District and the operation of the law in this respect was delayed. As it stands now, however, service of process may be made on the superintendent and the usual notice sent by him to the company being sued.

CONCLUSION.

It gives me pleasure to report that the work of the department is in a satisfactory condition and that all local insurance companies and associations reporting to this department are being examined regularly.

I wish to take this opportunity to commend my assistants for their fidelity and diligence in the performance of their various duties.

Respectfully submitted.

GEO. W. INGHAM,
Superintendent of Insurance.
